An accident has befallen the Hudson River tunnel, by collapse, and 20 persons were buried and drowned. The securing of the bodies depends upon the building of a coffer dam, which will require some three or four weeks.

We have the note in advance from our Democratic friends, that they are going to make a lively campaign in this State. We are glad to have this announcement made full and unreserved, as after election we do not care to have it claimed, that

The three candidates for President this year are none of them very rich men. Gen. Garfield is said to be worth about $20,000, Republican electors of Ashtabula county Gen. General Hancock, in one of his letters, mys "it's principles not men." It would he kind of the General to state what are the principles of the Democracy. Except ing "State rights," and such other rights and principles as grow out of these-the shot gun principles, and bull-doxing principles. We haven't any definite idea what they are.

The use of Judge Sherman's name in Conection with the Congressional canvass, although well enough known, perhaps, to date for President, is an elder and local preacher in what is known as the Campbelite church. General Weaver, the National Greenback candidate for the same of. of peace, of sound judgment and comprefice, is a prominent member of the Methodist church. He is one of the sweet sing-ONE COMMEN.

Some of the newspapers mention James Read, Sr., the able editor of the Ashtabula Telegraph, as possibly one of the "dark horses" in the coming Congressional convention. What foundation there is for this rumor we cannot say, but we do know Mr. Reed as a superior-editor, a sound Republican and most estimable gentleman, who would do honor to the District in Congress, or in any other public capacity.
